COURTS-MARTIAL.

At a Court-Martial, held for the trial of the Mutineers, late of His Majesty's Ship Téméraire, on-board the Gladiator, in Portsmouth harbour, Wednesday, Jan. 6, and following days, Vice-Adm. Sir A. Mitchell, K. B. president: — The following seamen, viz. John Mayfield, James Ward, James Chesterman, John Fitzgerald, Thomas Cross, James Lockyer, John Cummins, Christopher White, William Hillier, James Collins, John Daly, Joseph Rowland, Thomas Jones, and William Cooke, were charged with Mutiny, with holding mutinous and seditious words, with taking an active part in certain mutinous and treasonable words, and not revealing the same, as they ought to have done, to their commanding-officer. The charges having been proved in the course of a trial which continued five days, on the 12th the court passed sentence of death on all excepting Christopher White, who was ordered to receive 200 lashes.

On Thursday, Jan. 14, John Allen, Edward Taylor, George Comayne, George Dixon, James Riley, and Thomas Simmonds, were set to bar on similar charges, which, having been proved on that and the two following days, sentence of death was passed on all except Comayne, who was ordered to receive a punishment of 200 lashes.

On the 15th of January were executed, on-board the Téméraire, Majestic, and Formidable, at Spithead, Chesterman, Collins, Fitzgerald, Hillier, Ward, and Mayfield; and, on the 19th, Allen, Taylor, Dixon, Riley, and Simmonds, were executed on-board the Achille and Téméraire at the same place.

At a Court-Martial, held on Friday, Jan. 22, on-board the Gladiator, Vice-Admiral Sir A. Mitchell, President: Captain Sir Edward Hamilton, of His Majesty's ship Trent, was tried on a charge of inflicting unmerited punishment on Mr. W. Bowman, gunner of that ship, by confining him, with four of his crew, in the main rigging on the 11th of the same month. It appeared that the gunner, after remaining there one hour of three, which the captain had ordered, complained, that, from the imbecility of age, he could not bear the punishment; then, being untied, he instantly fainted. The charge being proved, Sir Edward was sentenced to be dismissed His Majesty's service.
